

Eva Galler Holocaust Survivor

Eva (Szeva) Galler was born on January 1, 1923, in the town of Oleszyce in southeastern Poland. Eva's father Israel Vogel was a businessman exporting Jewish 'articles' and a leader of Oleszyce's Jewish community. Eva's mother Ita was from nearby Jozefow. The family was Orthodox and Eva was oldest of eight: Hana was 14 in 1939; Pincus 13; Berko 12; Molly 10; Dora 8; Gezel 6; and Ariel 1. Eva was the only survivor.

Israel Vogel, Eva's father and
Ita, Eva's mother

Eva, mother Ita and sister Hana

"We were a big family. We were eight children; I am the oldest of eight. When they took us to the trains to take [us] to the death camp, I was seventeen years old and my youngest brother was three years old and I still hear him scream." 'I WANT TO LIVE TOO'

Eva Galler's extended family

Henry Galler

After the war she met her high school 'sweetheart', Henry Galler, another Holocaust survivor. They married in Sweden December 24, 1946 and had three daughters. The family moved to New York in 1954.

Henry Galler, in the Polish Army