

Jack Gluck

Hungarian Holocaust survivor Jack Gluck's testimony is very touching as he recounts the many miracles that saved his life and the lives of his family members. Jack was two years old when his family was liberated by the Russians from a Jewish safe house established by Raoul Wallenberg. They had lived there after Raoul gave them Schutz passes at the railway station in Budapest, enabling them to be seen as Swedish citizens. Jack expresses his deep gratitude for the many righteous Christians who hid and aided his family from April 1944 on, knowing that if they were caught, they would be shot.

Jews lining up in front of the "Glass House" during World War II to obtain protective exit visas.

Raoul Wallenberg

Raoul Wallenberg, a Swedish diplomat assigned to Sweden's embassy in Budapest, led one of the most extensive and successful rescue efforts during the Holocaust. He protected tens of thousands of Hungarian Jews from deportation to the Auschwitz-Birkenau killing center.

The Raoul Wallenberg exhibition at the House of Sweden in Washington, D.C.

Schutz-Pass sample

