

Form for Selling Your Chametz with Rabbi Hillel Skolnik – Passover 5778-2018
Southwest Orlando Jewish Congregation

Over the course of the eight days of Passover, we are commanded both to not eat chametz, or leaven, and to possess no leaven in our households. In olden times, Jews would literally break their pots so as not to be in possession of household items that were considered chametz during Passover. Clearly, this would not be a practical solution for our times. Luckily, the rabbis created a mechanism by which all of our things that we use year round would remain in our homes but not be in our possession during Passover. That mechanism is the selling of a person's chametz. By filling out the information and signing below, you authorize me to be your agent in the selling of the chametz in your home. It does not mean that these things need to be packaged and shipped to the synagogue or anywhere else, though they should be put out of sight somewhere in your house for the duration of the holiday. It does mean that for the dates listed below, your chametz items will technically not belong to you. And then, with the end of the Passover, these items will once again become yours with no strings attached. I recognize that this is a somewhat confusing practice and would be happy to answer any further questions you might have by email – rabbi@sojc.org. Please be sure to return this form by Thursday, March 30 either to the SOJC office, or to the labeled folder in my box.

One final note: It is my honor to act as the selling agent for anyone who wishes to partake in this important mitzvah and to do so free of charge. It has, though, long been the practice in Jewish communities that a donation is made, most often to the Rabbi's discretionary fund, as a token of appreciation.

This transaction will be in effect for the duration of Passover beginning at 9 AM on March 30, 2018 and continues until 8:29 PM on April 7, 2018.
