

Shabbat Siddur and High Holiday Mahzur

In these times of physical distancing, our SOJC community has kept our connections possible through Zoom.

Having a Siddur at home will make your virtual Shabbat experience even more meaningful. We are offering Siddurim for $36.00 (our cost including shipping) to enhance your experience. There is nothing like holding the prayer book in your hands as you do in the synagogue. We want you to experience Shabbat in the most meaningful and significant way and are recommending that everyone own a Siddur to have and to hold.

As we approach the High Holidays, you can also purchase Mahzorim. We strongly encourage everyone have their own Mahzor. Please be aware that the supply of Mahzorim at SOJC is extremely limited. We say this every year and those of you who don't own one have found that to be true.

Both the Lev Shalem Siddur and Lev Shalem Mahzorim are filled with side commentaries, poems and explanations to add more spirituality and significance.

Kindly fill out the form below then scan and email the completed form to office@sojc.org and make your payment on the www.sojc.org link; or mail the form along with a check to SOJC at 11200 S. Apopka Vineland Rd., Orlando, FL 32836. To ensure we have enough prayer books for all who want them, kindly return this order form no later than June 22, 2020.

Stay safe and healthy.
